IMPERIAL OF IMPACT
Created in August 2021, #BlackBizLuvv set out to fund and amplify Black businesses, which are often under-appreciated, under-mentored and underfunded.

The campaign highlighted 35 companies, across multiple product categories (skincare, fashion, tech, jewelry, home décor, candles and more). In just a month, #BlackBizLuvv infused over $500,000 into their revenues through organic amplification.

Historically, Black businesses have faced systemic barriers and hurdles that prevent them from being established and growing at the same rate as their counterparts. When we intentionally support small, Black businesses, it's a form of economic justice.

#SHARETHEMICNOW CAMPAIGN

On June 10, 2020, 54 Black women took over the Instagram feeds of 54 white women with large platforms. That day, the 300 million people who followed those white women listened to Black women. The day of action has now garnered over 20 billion impressions.

Founded by Bozoma Saint John, Luvvie Ajayi Jones and Glennon Doyle, #SharetheMicNow became a movement.

The intention of this campaign was to magnify Black women and other marginalized voices. When the world listens to women, it listens to white women. For far too long, Black women’s voices have gone unheard, even though they’ve been using their voices loudly for centuries to enact change. Today, more than ever, it is NECESSARY that we create a unifying action to center Black women's lives, stories, and calls to action. Through the campaign, the founders aimed Black voices working toward change in America’s racist systems and reaching an audience they previously hadn’t.
